Celebrate Public Art with the Heritage & Arts Commission This Summer!

Collaborative Nature: Opens Saturday 5/20

The Tiburon Heritage & Arts Commission is excited to announce the unveiling of Tiburon's newest piece of public art - Collaborative Nature by Thomas Jackson. Thomas Jackson's work is centered on our relationship with the environment - and the forces of nature, time, and change (more info). The installation will open this Saturday, May 20 at the South of the Knoll Park.

The Heritage & Arts Commission invites you to the opening of Collaborative Nature this Saturday, May 20, at 4:00 p.m. at the South of the Knoll Park. If you can't make it to the opening, the piece will be on display for all to enjoy until July 9.

Portuguese Dairy Mural on the Old Rail Trail

The Portuguese Dairy Mural is nearing completion and will open June 9.

To celebrate the Portuguese history surrounding the Tiburon Portuguese Dairy Mural wall, there will be two special musical performances by the Daniel Pereira Cristo Quartet. This group is visiting from Portugal and specializes in Portuguese Celtic roots folk music.

The quartet will be performing two concerts in Tiburon:

Thursday, May 18 (tonight!) at the Tiburon Lodge - 6:00 p.m. (admission free)

Thursday, May 25 at Old Saint Hilary's Church - 6:00 p.m. ($20 suggested donation to the Landmarks Society)
