SPECIAL BULLETIN

Thefts from Mailboxes

In recent days an unidentified suspect has stolen mail from various locations in Tiburon, Belvedere and Strawberry. Initially the thefts looked isolated but it now appears to be more widespread, hence this bulletin.

A substantial amount of the stolen mail was abandoned on the street in Belvedere and will be returned to addressees over the next two or three days.

Police also recovered opened packaging of a type commonly used by banks to send new checks to their depositors. The checks were missing. If you recently ordered checks from a bank and have not received them please contact your bank immediately.

One theft on Friday may have been witnessed by a Tiburon resident. He saw a woman described as being "well dressed" and in her mid thirties going through mail boxes on Mar West Street. The woman was driving a gray Mercedes.

Anyone having any information is encouraged to call the Tiburon Police Department at 789-2801.

Michael Cronin
Chief of Police
